

Teaching and Learning Culture - Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Perspectives

10hrs NESA registered professional learning – Standards 6.2.2, 6.3.2, 7.2.2

28th -29th November 2018 - Brewongle Environmental Education Centre.

This course aims to build teacher cultural competencies and connections to culture and country. Teachers will examine the Aboriginal Education and Training Policy, gain Darug cultural perspectives, investigate opportunities to include Aboriginal and Torres Islander perspectives in curriculum units as well giving consideration to individual learning programs for Indigenous students.

This workshop will include;

- Aboriginal Education and Training Policy, Curriculum perspectives and LAC priority.
- Developing a sense of place – Darug histories and culture
- Brewongle EEC's leading cultural programs
- PLP's for Aboriginal Students and NESA perspectives
- Reconciliation Action Plans for Schools with Narragunnawali

Our presenters;

- Aboriginal Educational and Wellbeing - School Services
- Shirley Gilbert, School of Education UWS – Gunditjmarra nation
- Local Darug Aboriginal educators – Chris Tobin, Erin Wilkins
- Narragunnawali: Reconciliation in Schools and Early Learning
- Brewongle EEC Staff

Price: $200 per person. – (payable via interschool journal to Brewongle EEC).

Register on MyPL – Course code - RG03131 by Friday 23rd November 2018
Teaching and Learning Culture - Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Perspectives

587 Chapel Hill Road, Sackville
North NSW 2756

P: 4579 1136 F: 4579 1072

W: www.brewongle-e.schools.nsw.edu.au

E: brewongle-e.admin@det.nsw.edu.au